HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION No. 68

WHEREAS, An unnecessarily large number of accidents have occurred resulting in many deaths and injuries on the overpass and its approach curves located on State Route 150 over the C B & Q Railroad east of Galesburg; and

WHEREAS, From 1953 through March, 1963 a total of 54 accidents have occurred at this location resulting in four deaths, many injuries and large property damage; and

WHEREAS, The design of the overpass and its approach curves is in large measure responsible for the excessive number of accidents; therefore, be it

Resolved, By the House of Representatives of the Seventy-third General Assembly of the State of Illinois, the Senate concurring herein, that the Department of Public Works and Buildings is hereby respectfully urged to undertake a study to determine if it would be feasible to eliminate the overpass and replace it with a crossing at grade level or to determine other methods of correcting the hazards which contribute to the high rate of accidents on the overpass described in the preamble of this resolution; and, be it further

Resolved, That a suitable copy of this resolution be forwarded to the Director of Public Works and Buildings.

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 69

WHEREAS, In 1931, when the general knowledge of scenic spots in Southern Illinois was limited to such places as Giant City and Cave-In-Rock, L. O. Trigg, of Eldorado, conducted his first tour of the Illinois Ozarks, and for 18 years thereafter guided a group every year on a 3-day tour of remote and spectacular rock formations, stone forts, shelter bluffs, caves, waterfalls and mountain tops and other unknown places of the Illinois Ozarks; and

WHEREAS, On the death in 1949 of L. O. Trigg, those whom he had guided on these tours decided that the most fitting tribute to his pioneering efforts in revealing the wonders of Southern Illinois would be the establishment of a marked highway along the top of the Ozark ridge, from the Devil's Backbone at Grand Tower on the Mississippi River to Battery Rock on the Ohio River to be known as the "Trigg Memorial Trail", from which the people of the United States could view and visit the scenic and recreational wonders of the Illinois Ozarks; and

WHEREAS, The trail, a combined system of federal, state, county and township roads, is presently being improved and delineated with explanatory markers and appropriate directions to side roads leading to other scenic spots along the way; therefore, be it

Resolved, By the House of Representatives of the Seventy-third General Assembly of the State of Illinois, the Senate concurring herein, that the scenic highway now nearing completion stretching, as described above in this resolution, across a beautiful area of Southern Illinois between the Mississippi and Ohio Rivers be designated by the Director of the Department of Public Works and Buildings as the "Trigg Memorial Trail" and that appropriate markers therefor be erected and that a suitable copy of this resolution be forwarded to the Director of the Department of Public Works and Buildings.

WHEREAS, In 1931, when the general knowledge of scenic spots in Southern Illinois was limited to such places as Giant City and Cave-in-Rock, L. O. Trigg, of Eldorado, conducted his first tour of the Illinois Ozarks, and for 18 years thereafter guided a group every year on a 3-day tour of remote and spectacular rock formations, stone forts, shelter bluffs, caves, waterfalls and mountain tops and other unknown places of the Illinois Ozarks; and

WHEREAS, On the death in 1949 of L. O. Trigg, those whom he had guided on these tours decided that the most fitting tribute to his pioneering efforts in revealing the wonders of Southern Illinois would be the establishment of a marked highway along the top of the Ozark ridge, from the Devil's Backbone at Grand Tower on the Mississippi River to Battery Rock on the Ohio River to be known as the "Trigg Memorial Trail", from which the people of the United States could view and visit the scenic and recreational wonders of the Illinois Ozarks; and

EXPLANATION OF PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO SECTION 9 OF ARTICLE IV (Annual Legislative Sessions)

This amendment would provide that the "General Assembly" would meet every year instead of every second year as at present. The annual session in the odd numbered years would meet from January through June and would be able to take up any matter. This is the present system. The annual session in the even numbered years would meet during May and June. It would be able to consider only appropriation and revenue bills and matters necessary to the operation of the session itself. This amendment would not change the present power of the governor to call a special session at any time.

FORM OF BALLOT FOR AMENDMENT TO SECTION 9 OF ARTICLE IV

Immediately below the above "explanation" on the ballot shall be printed substantially the following:

“Place an X in the blank square opposite ‘Yes’ or ‘No’ to indicate your choice.”

	YES	For the proposed amendment to Section 9 of Article IV of the Constitution (Annual Legislative Sessions.)
	NO

ARGUMENT IN FAVOR OF AMENDMENT TO SECTION 9 OF ARTICLE IV
(Annual Legislative Sessions)

The proposed amendment would enable Illinois to have an up to date government where the General Assembly would meet annually.

I—Annual Sessions Mean More Efficient Government.

State government today is big business and requires efficient management. Eighteen states now have such annual sessions including most of the large industrial states. Illinois spends about five million dollars a day to run state government.

II—Annual Sessions are Necessary to Forecast Accurately the Income and Expenses of Illinois.

No family no business and no local government attempt to forecast for two years in advance what their income and expenses will be. In fact, annual budgeting is the common practice among all other governments in Illinois except the state. The present operation of state government on a two year basis has resulted in numerous deficiency appropriations and frequent and expensive special sessions. With annual sessions the General Assembly could produce a more realistic budget, taking into account economic conditions which change rapidly and affect every part of state government.

III—Annual Sessions Give the People a Better Control Over Their State Government.

Under our Constitution, members of the General Assembly directly represent the ten million citizens of Illinois. A careful control over your tax dollars requires that your representatives in state government meet at least once a year to insure the most efficient expenditure of state funds.

MINORITY ARGUMENT AGAINST AMENDMENT TO SECTION 9 OF ARTICLE IV
(Annual Legislative Sessions)

The Legislature should continue to meet every other year in Illinois, rather than every year as proposed in the amendment to Section 9 of Article IV of the Constitution, for the following reasons:

- 1. The cost of government will increase proportionately to the number of days the Legislature is in session.
In the 72nd Biennium (1961-1963) the total recommended budget was $3,493,400,000. The Legislature exceeded this budget by $78,500,000 for “pet projects”. The total appropriated sum in the immediate past Biennium, therefore, was $3,526,200,000. This amounted to over 50 million dollars appropriated on each legislative day that the General Assembly was in session, and over one million dollars appropriated in excess of the budget on each of these legislative days.

2. There will be an additional cost to the taxpayer for operating the House and Senate every year, instead of every other year.

The regular session in 1961 cost the taxpayers $3,816,700 for all expenses, including employees. It is estimated that the 1963 session cost in excess of 4 million dollars. Additional sessions will cost additional millions.

3. Annual sessions will naturally lead to increased salaries for legislators, and the sponsors of this amendment recommended a 50% increase in legislators' salaries.

The present cost of legislators' salaries to the taxpayer is $2,820,000 per term. A 50% increase would cost the taxpayers $1,410,000 per term.

4. This amendment is not necessary because the Governor now has the power to call the Legislature into special session at any time.

The General Assembly may meet at any time upon call by the Governor and pass emergency legislation by a two-thirds vote.

5. Most states of the Union do not have annual sessions.

Of the 50 states of the Union, 32 do not have annual sessions, and only 18 have annual sessions. The most recent state to try annual sessions (Nevada—1960) returned to sessions every other year after only one year's experience.

6. Annual sessions will result in irresponsible legislation in the even numbered year due to "lame ducks".

A "lame duck" is a legislator who completes his term after a defeat at the polls. Since all House members, and one-half of all Senate members, are up for re-election in each even numbered year, and since a number of them are defeated in the primary election in April, each future session will be disturbed by bitter and discontented legislators who may work their will against the best public interest.

7. If we are to have annual sessions, the Legislature should be able to consider any legislation that may come before it.

The amendment provides that the Legislature in the even numbered year should consider only appropriation and revenue bills. If the State is going to incur the expense of an additional session each Biennium, the Legislature should be able to act on all matters.

8. Finally, there is no need for annual sessions, since the budget is prepared by experts outside the Legislature, and carefully examined by legislative leaders on the Budgetary Commission.

EXPLANATION OF PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO ADD SECTION 35 TO ARTICLE IV (Continuity of governmental operations in periods of emergency.)

This proposal would permit the General Assembly by law to provide for the orderly continuance of Government in case of emergencies, such as might result from a nuclear attack.

FORM OF BALLOT FOR AMENDMENT TO ADD SECTION 35 TO ARTICLE IV

Immediately below the above "explanation" on the ballot shall be printed substantially the following:

"Place an X in blank square opposite 'Yes' or 'No' to indicate your choice."

	YES	For the proposed amendment to add Section 35 to Article IV of the Constitution. (Continuity of governmental operations in periods of emergency.)
	NO

ARGUMENT IN FAVOR OF AMENDMENT TO ADD SECTION 35 TO ARTICLE IV
(Continuity of governmental operations in periods of emergency.)

Forty-eight of the fifty states of the Union have adopted amendments to their state constitutions which are comparable to this proposal. While it is hoped that the eventually contemplated in this amendment will never happen, it seems wise now to make preparation for our state and local government to continue in an orderly fashion even after a disaster caused by an enemy attack.

This amendment was passed without objection in both the Senate and House of Representatives of the Illinois General Assembly.

The motion prevailed.

And the foregoing report of the special committees was adopted.

Quigley; and

WHEREAS, Father Quille has continuously manifested in a series of ecclesiastical assignments to which he has contributed selfless zeal and effective industry, a laudable mixture of the noblest elements of a priest of God—proper interest and assistance in the temporal affairs of his flock in recognition of the need to foster an atmosphere conducive to spiritual strength, but above all an abiding protection and promotion of the vital spiritual interests of his flock; and

WHEREAS, Paul Powell is a man of compassion, unquestionable ability, integrity, and a man with the courage of his convictions; and

WHEREAS, It is the vigilance of this man which keeps "certain" newspapermen as close to respectful and fair reporting as possible considering their standards, and who has different uses for newspapers than just reading; and

WHEREAS, In the early part of this session Paul Powell had the courage to rise from his sick bed, at the risk of his very life, to take his place in this chamber to serve his fellow legislators, his people and his State; and

WHEREAS, Paul Powell possesses so much natural wit and so great a facility with the English language that he will always be known to us as the Will Rogers of Illinois; and

WHEREAS, Paul Powell is a man who knows the legislature inside and out and has a sincere and passionate love and respect for the legislature and its members; therefore, be it
